Centre mulling revocation of AFSPA, troop pullback: Amit Shah

Political parties in J-K welcome Shah's statement on AFSPA revocation

JAMMU BULLETIN BUREAU SRINAGAR, MAR 27:

In a major reach-out to Kashmiris, Union Home Minister Amit Shah has said that New Delhi is mulling to pull-back troops from Jammu & Kashmir and also considering revocation of the Armed Forces Special Powers Act (AFSPA) from the Union Territory. Shah also said that the highest number of fake encounters have taken place in NC and PDP rule in Kashmir. He also said that the Union Government is committed to hold Assembly elections in J&K before September 2024 and statehood would be restored after the electoral exercise. The Union Government will consider revocation of the Armed Forces Special Powers Act (AFSPA) from Jammu and Kashmir and it is likely that Jammu and Kashmir police would helm the region's internal law and order. "We have plans to pull back troops and leave law and order to the Jammu and Kashmir Police alone. Earlier, the Jammu and Kashmir police was not trusted but today they are leading the operations. We will also think of revoking AFSPA," Shah told the news channel. The statement of HM indicates that the BJP-led Union Government could go for big confidence building measures (CBMs) on Kashmir if it is voted to power for the third consecutive term. Reiterating the commitment of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) to establish democracy in Jammu and Kashmir, Shah affirmed that assembly elections would take place in the region before September and later statehood would be returned. He underscored that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had made this pledge in Parliament, a promise he himself supported. "If there is any person who can safeguard Kashmiriyat, it is Prime Minister Modi," he said. Shah emphasized that democracy would flourish once again in Jammu and Kashmir, but it would not be dominated by a few families. He asserted that this democracy would truly represent the people of Jammu and Kashmir. "The political landscape will no longer be dominated by dynasties. The new leadership will emerge and I (Cont. on P-8) ➤
