

BJP's communal narrative weakening national unity: Rattan Lal

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS
RAJOURI, APR 24:

Rattan Lal Gupta, Provincial President of J&K National Conference today launched a scathing attack against the Saffron Party for its alleged attempts to sow communal divisions in the country for its petty political gains. The senior NC leader was speaking during the election campaign meeting in support of Party's candidate Mian Altaf Ahmed in Village Kaller Block Dongi of district Rajouri.

During the campaign, Ch. Naseem Liaqat, DDC Chairman Rajouri, Th. Rameshwar Singh DDC Dhangri, Ch. Khlaid Hussain DDC Dongi, Ch. Reyaz former BDC Chairman Dongi, Ch. Maqbool Hussain former BDC Chairman Dhangri, Yashu Vardhan, Additional Spokesperson JKNC, Vijay Lochan, Chairman JKNC SC Cell, Shafayat Khan District President Rajouri, Showket Mir, Rakesh Singh Rakka, and other senior leaders of the Party were present.

At the outset of the meeting, Th. Rameshwar Singh, DDC Dhangri and Provincial Vice President JKNC Jammu, apprised the senior functionaries of the Party about the hardships being faced by the people of hilly terrain in absence of basic amenities. Addressing the gathering, Rattan Lal Gupta, Provincial President lambasted the BJP for its relentless pursuit of divisive politics, which he described as detrimental to the nation's social, secular, fabric and democratic ethos. "The BJP's continuous attempts to sow seeds of communal discord for its own electoral gains are deplorable and reprehensible. Their communal narrative is not only dividing communities but also weakening the very ethos of our nation. "Reacting over the 'Mangalsutra' remarks of PM Modi, Rattan Lal said that the Saffron Party was seeking to indulge in politics of religion but would not succeed as people of the country with diverse religious traditions live in harmony. He said that BJP's agenda of divisive politics will never succeed.

"National Conference has always stood strongly against divisive forces and will foil the machinations of those who were hell bent to destroy the multigrain social and secular fabric of the country," he added. Adv. Naseem Liaqat, DDC Chairman, Rajouri, expressed profound disappointment with the present government's indifferent attitude towards the populace amidst the absence of a popularly elected government. He underscored the government's failure to allocate sufficient funds for the development of hilly terrains, resulting in the deprivation of basic amenities for the people residing there.

Highlighting the plight of the weaker sections of society, Vijay Lochan Chairman SC Cell, Ch. Khalid DDC Dongi, Ch. Reyaz, Ch. Maqbool, Khurshida Begum, lamented their continued neglect under the incumbent government. They said that these marginalized communities has deprived of their due rights under the Modi regime. They stressed the urgent need to support the National Conference (NC) candidate for equitable development, emphasizing that only through such support can the marginalized segments of society hope for meaningful progress and inclusivity in governance.

Thakur Yashu Vardhan Singh, Additional Spokesperson JKNC, Professor Vikar Rtd Principal and other senior leaders of congress said that the present Govt has miserably failed to do justice with the youth of Jammu and Kashmir. They said today the youth is in utter frustration due to unemployment, lack of job avenues, recruitment scams in the government jobs. They said that the BJP led Govt has pursued only anti-people policies with people able to see only a bleak future for them. The senior NC leaders and Congress leaders appealed to the people of Jammu and Kashmir to get unite against divisive forces by extending full support to the INDIA Alliance Candidate Mian Altaf from Anantnag-Rajouri Parliamentary Constituency, in the endeavor to remove the BJP from power and restore the principles of inclusivity and pluralism in governance. Among those who were present include: Rishat Khan, Nissar Ahmed, Tufail Hussain Block President, Qamran Tahir, Bansil Lal, Mohd Sadiq, Rattan Lal Mehta, Suraj Parkash, Vipin Pal Sharma Sarpanch, Ch. MP Khatana, Purnima visit Talab Khatikan, seek support of Muslim brethren in ensuing LS polls

Says BJP working on core principle of 'Sab Ka Saath Sab Ka Vishwas'

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS
JAMMU, APR 24:

Member of Parliament Gulam Ali Khatana along with Adv. Purnima Sharma, Spokesperson BJP J&K and Co-convenor for engaging with Social and Commercial organizations and former Deputy Mayor, today visited Talab Khatikan area and interacted with members of Muslim brethren in view of last leg of the election campaign for the Jammu Reasi Lok Sabha seat.

Interacting with members of Muslim brethren, the Member Parliament said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi led Govt at the Centre has worked relentlessly for the welfare of all sections of the society irrespective of caste, creed, colour, religion or region consideration. Highlighting that BJP is working on the core principle of 'Sab Ka Saath Sab Ka Vishwas', he said that this principle is undoubtedly the hallmark of the incumbent Govt which no other Govt possessed for about seven decades post independence. Gulam Ali Khatana vociferously asserted that the incumbent BJP rule under PM Modi has proved that this Govt has unlike Congress party worked for the benefit of all communities including the Muslims of this nation in true letter and spirit.

Purnima Sharma, in her address, said that after the Modi Government has exposed the political outfits including Congress, NC and PDP, which exploited the people in J&K for decades by spreading wrong narratives based on divisive agendas, the people have now realized that it is only BJP which can bail out masses from the morass created by aforesaid parties which ruled the region in the past.

She said that under the dynamic leadership of PM Narendra Modi, Jammu and Kashmir has witnessed a transformative shift towards inclusive governance, ensuring that every community, including Muslims, receives the attention and benefits they rightfully deserve. She said that Modi's vision quite rightly emphasizes "Development is only possible when Muslim youth hold Quran in one hand and computer/ Laptop in the other." The senior BJP leaders appealed to the members of Muslim community to come forward and extend their unwavering support by casting their votes in favor of the BJP candidate to ensure the continued advancement and prosperity of the Union Territory.

DPAP contesting LS elections independently: Azad

SRINAGAR, APR 24:

Chairman DPAP, Ghulam Nabi Azad, unequivocally stated that the party will not form alliances with any other party in the Lok Sabha elections. Instead, the DPAP will contest independently. Azad emphasized the party's commitment to fielding young, fresh candidates who embody honesty and possess the potential to effectively represent their constituents in Parliament, echoing his own legacy of raising voices for the people. He said, "I am Azad, I stand independent. My departure from the Congress was a result of leadership failure. Any praise from the Prime Minister in Parliament reflects solely on my work and honesty, devoid of affiliations. Our slate of Lok Sabha candidates predominantly comprises young, untainted faces. My vision is to empower the youth, who possess the fervor to champion public causes. I am confident they will echo the public's concerns in Parliament, much as I have." Azad stressed the importance of steering away from personal attacks and instead concentrating on agendas, visions, and past accomplishments. He challenged the other political factions, inviting them to partake in a constructive competition centered around development achievements. "It's time to transcend the hollow promises of self-rule and autonomy," he asserted. "While others have profited from exploiting these sentiments, we remain steadfast in our commitment to delivering genuine advancements for our constituents." Azad reiterated his commitment to bolstering tourism, fostering development, improving infrastructure such as roads, and enhancing educational institutions, emphasizing that these are his primary objectives. He pledged to prioritize the welfare of the people, ensuring justice for victims of past injustices. He said, "During my tenure as CM, insecurity was a thing of the past, and I vow to restore that peace and security once again." He further extended an assurance to the people of Kashmir, promising to usher in an era where children can move freely without fear. Azad appealed the people, urging them not to be swayed by the hollow promises of other parties, particularly the NC and PDP, highlighting their history of alliances with the BJP. He exposed the duplicitous actions of certain parties who hoisted green flags in Kashmir only to align with the BJP and betray your trust," the statement emphasized. "While in parliament, their members remained silent on crucial issues like Article 370, whereas I consistently voiced the concerns of Kashmiris." He underscored the importance of holding accountable those who have failed to deliver on their promises, urging the people to put their faith in leaders who have consistently advocated for their rights and interests. "Let us not be deceived again," he urged. Among others who were present on the occasion were Mohd Amin Bhatt Provincial President, DPAP Lok Sabha Candidate Adv Saleem Parry, Chief Spokesperson Salman Nizami and others.

BJP Kashmir Displaced District organizes foot march in support of Jugal Kishore Sharma

JAMMU, APR 24:

Bharatiya Janata Party's Kashmir Displaced District orchestrated a spirited foot march from Durga Nagar to Chinore and Roop Nagar, spearheaded by District President Chand Ji Bhat. The event saw the active participation of Ex MLC Ajey Bharti and Seh-Prabhari Hira Lal Bhat, as they rallied the community to vote in favor of BJP's contesting MP candidate, Jugal Kishore Sharma. Amidst chants of support for Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the BJP candidate, the march resonated with fervent enthusiasm, embodying the collective resolve to propel the party to victory. Addressing the gathering, Ajey Bharti extolled the unparalleled development witnessed in Jammu and Kashmir under the stewardship of the Union Government led by Narendra Modi. Emphasizing the imperative of furthering developmental initiatives and fostering world-class infrastructure, he asserted the electorate's unwavering determination to vote for the BJP in the impending Parliamentary polls.

Chand Ji Bhat echoed these sentiments, underscoring how the BJP-led government has dignified the lives of 80 crore impoverished citizens, paving the way for a more inclusive and prosperous society. He exuded confidence in Prime Minister Modi's leadership, predicting a resounding third-term victory for the BJP with a robust majority. Furthermore, Bhat extended a heartfelt appeal to Kashmiri Pandits residing in Jammu, urging them to throw their support behind BJP candidate Jugal Kishore Sharma. Seh-Prabhari Hira Lal Bhat, in his address, elucidated the myriad welfare measures initiated by the Modi government to alleviate the plight of the Kashmiri displaced community. Reminiscing the harrowing trials endured during the reign of previous administrations, he underscored the BJP's unwavering commitment to redress historical injustices and foster a climate of dignity and progress for all.
