Bhalla lashes out BJP for silence on plight of common man

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS JAMMU, JUL 26: Working President JKPC Raman Bhalla has lashed out at the BJP for being mute spectator to the plight of common man faced by them on daily basis. This was stated by him while addressing workers meeting at East Constituency Ward-19 in Chand Nagar in presence of Vice President JKPC Yogesh Sawhney, Vice President and Treasurer Rajnish Sharma Mian, District President Th Manmohan Singh. Prominent among those present on the occasion include Block President Ajay Kumar, Anil Kumar, Sajjad, Madam Neela, Ravi Kumar, Raj Kumar Sodi, Ajhru Ram, Pawan Kumar, Gorher, Vikas Mehra, Vinod Kumar, Subash Chander, Manjoori Lal, Aman Loch, Surjeet Singh, Sunny Mehra, Rattan Lal, Lalita Sharma, Mohd. Riaz, Subash Singh, Satpal and others. Bhalla said that BJP has failed safeguard the rights and represent the voice of people despite getting votes on false promises. The people are facing great hardships on various fronts under the bureaucratic regime as there is no one to listen to the problem of common & poor man. Bhalla said that people are being fleeced under various taxes, smart meters but there is no regular supplies of power in metered areas also in this scorching heat. People are being made to pay from their nose while the loans in crorrs of rich people are being waived off by Modi government. The people want restoration of statehood but BJP government has further snatched the democratic rights of people from elected government and vested the powers in Lt Governor. This is cruel joke with people of J&K for which all people must get United to get restored their own rights and oust BJP from Power. Former Minister Yogesh Sawhney said that Congress will fight tooth and nail the dictatorship policies of BJP and Modi government and party has already launched a struggle for restoration of statehood with full powers immediately. People should join the movement and all like minded parties who are for the restoration of the rights of people should come together. Vice President and Treasurer JKPC Rajnish Sharma Mian and DCC President Th Manmohan Singh said that Congress shall not rest till state is restored and people are given their democratic rights. People are suffering a lot due to inflated and exorbitant bills of power while there are frequent power cuts. Several Congress leaders of district urban including block president spoke on the issues faced by people.

J&K Teachers Forum calls on Principal Secretary SED Alok Kumar

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS JAMMU, JUL 26: In a significant move towards addressing the pressing issues within the education sector, a high level delegation from the J&K Teachers Forum (JKTF), led by Chairman JK Teachers Forum and National Vice President of AISTF, Mohammad Ameen Khan, held a detailed discussion with the Principal Secretary of the School Education Department (SED) J&K, Shri Alok Kumar (IRS). The meeting focused on various critical issues facing the teaching community and the overall educational landscape in J&K. Worthy Principal Secretary Shri Alok Kumar (IRS) commended Chairman M. Ameen Khan for his persistent advocacy of genuine and relevant issues through a well-defined manner. He congratulated Mr. Khan on securing the affiliation of AISTF, a renowned country wide organization, which marks a significant milestone for JKTF. On this occasion, M. Ameen Khan praised SED J&K under the leadership of Shri Alok Kumar (IRS) for making extraordinary decisions to improve the quality of education and streamline various components. The meeting discussed the issues like confirmation of left out lecturers, ZEOs, Principals and CEOs, transfer policy of G2 and G3. Uniform distribution of teaching staff in all schools. The delegation, which included General Secretary Shabeer Ahmad Bhat, President Women's Wing Mymoon Khan, Provincial President Mr. Hameedullah Trumbo, and the Chief Spokesperson JKTF Mir Bashir Ahmad, also highlighted several key concerns to Shri Alok Kumar (IRS). These included the promotion of ministerial staff, teachers, masters, headmasters, and lecturers, and the urgent need to fill vacant DDO posts across J&K. M. Ameen Khan expressed sincere gratitude to the Principal Secretary for the "One Time Exemption" benefit scheme for teachers and called for the timely settlement of this issue. He also requested exemptions for senior female teachers and teachers with lifelong diseases and underlying medical conditions from postings in Zone 5, advocating for more transparency in the process. Additionally, Mr. M. Ameen Khan highlighted the vacant JD North post, South and central, which has caused financial losses for teachers waiting for conversation from G3 to G2

Commending the Directors of School Education Jammu and Kashmir, Mr. Khan noted their serious efforts to clear promotion cases of teachers. He emphasized the need to fill the maximum number of master posts in one go. M. Ameen Khan lauded the educational improvements across J&K, attributing the highest ever pass percentages in 10th, 11th, and 12th class board exams to the dedicated efforts of the J&K administration, led by Hon'ble LG J&K Shri Manoj Sinha, Advisor to Hon'ble LG Shri R.R. Bhatnagar. Chief Secretary J&K Shri Atal Dulloo (IAS), and Principal Secretary SED J&K Shri Alok Kumar (IAS). He also praised the hard-working teachers for their contributions to achieving educational excellence. The Principal Secretary appreciated M. Ameen Khan's leadership and assured prompt action on the issues raised. He congratulated Mr. Khan and his team on their affiliation with AISTF, a reputed trade body known globally, and expressed his desire to visit Mr. Khan's native district. The delegation presented a memorandum to the Principal Secretary, expressing hope for due consideration of their demands.
