

Movement Kalki's protest continues on Day 32

Singer Nidhi Singh energizes supporters with Satsang

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS

JAMMU, Nov 21:

Movement Kalki's protest entered its 32nd day with undeterred enthusiasm and commitment. The protest, which began to demand the designation of the cow as the 'National Mother', construction of new gaushalas, implementation of stricter laws, and prevention of cattle smuggling, now also includes calls for establishing a Cow Board and a Sanatan Board. A special highlight of the day was the arrival of renowned singer Nidhi Singh, who infused fresh energy into the protesters through a soulful satsang and devotional songs. Addressing the gathering, she said, "Our cow mother is the foundation of our existence. The benefits of her milk, dung, and urine are invaluable. It is our duty to fight for her rights and ensure justice." She urged women to participate in large numbers and amplify their voices to pressure the government into action.

Monika Sharma emphasized, "The cow is our mother, and we are wholeheartedly fighting for her respect and protection under the banner of Movement Kalki. The government must enact strict laws, and those who kill cows must face severe punishment." Sushma Sharma appealed to the government, saying, "The cow must be recognized as the National Mother, and immediate action must be taken against smugglers. If the government delays any further, this movement will intensify." Suresh Kumar, a board member of Movement Kalki, remarked, "It's been 32 days of protest, but the government has yet to offer any solution. We are now fully prepared to sustain this movement for as long as necessary." Anuradha stated, "Killing a cow is equivalent to killing 33 crore deities. The government must immediately pass a strict law and recognize the cow as the National Mother." Sushil and Shashi, members of Movement Kalki, declared, "We will continue this protest until our demands are met. We will now organize rallies and other events to strengthen the movement and raise public awareness." Advisory Board Member Pritam Sharma, Legal Advisory Board Member Advocate Sureshwar Kohli, Suresh Kumar, Sushma Sharma, Monika Sharma, Anuradha, Sushil Dutt, Shashi, Vikram Mahajan, Sanjeev Dubey, Dr. Sudesh Kumar, Pawan Narang, Pawan Sharma, Santosh Kundal, Arun Gupta, Sapna Kohli, and other supporters actively participated in today's protest. This movement is not just about justice for cows but also aims to awaken societal awareness and protect Sanatan Dharma. The protest seeks to pressurize the government to enact strict laws and recognize the cow as the 'National Mother'.

Authorities have detained the smuggler, and further investigations are underway to uncover any links to larger wildlife trafficking networks.

Police solves blind murder case of woman and two children in Kishtwar

KISHTWAR, Nov 21:

As a major breakthrough, the Jammu & Kashmir Police District Kishtwar has solved a chilling blind murder case involving the deaths of a woman and her two children in Jisher Drabshalla. Initially reported as an accidental fire, the investigation uncovered it to be a premeditated murder. "On November 11, 2024, a fire was reported at the house of Khurshid Ahmed in Jisher Drabshalla, resulting in the deaths of his first wife, Nazia Begum (35), and their two children, Amina Bano (10) and Rizan Ahmed (5). The victims were tragically burnt alive. It reads, police initially registered an inquest under Section 174 of the CrPc and took the charred remains for post-mortem before handing them over to the family for last rites. However, the circumstances raised suspicions, prompting SSP Kishtwar to form a Special Investigation Team (SIT) for a detailed probe. The SIT, led by Inspector Firdous Ahmed and assisted by PSI Ankush Sharma under the supervision of Dy. SP Dr. Ishan Gupta, conducted a meticulous investigation. They analyzed technical evidence and interrogated multiple suspects. The probe revealed a web of domestic disputes in the household, as Khurshid Ahmed had two wives—Nazia Begum (deceased) and Asma Begum. Through sustained questioning, Asma Begum confessed to the crime before an Executive Magistrate. She admitted to setting the house on fire on November 11, 2024, due to ongoing conflicts with Nazia. Following her confession, the police converted the inquest into an FIR and arrested Asma. SSP Kishtwar lauded the SIT's efforts in solving the case and emphasized that such heinous acts will face the full force of the law. He reiterated the police's commitment to ensuring justice and maintaining the safety of the community.
