

Congress, Nehru mistreated Baba Saheb on multiple occasions: Sat Sharma

Sat Sharma addresses workers' meeting at Rajouri

JAMMU BULLETIN NEWS
RAJOURI, DEC 23:

Congress and the then Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru mistreated Baba Saheb on multiple occasions. The Documents and the facts exposing the hatred of Congress for Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar are in the public domain. This was stated by Sat Sharma, President, Bharatiya Janata Party, Jammu & Kashmir, when he along with Adv. Vibodh Gupta, party's General Secretary addressed a meeting of party workers regarding active membership at Party Office Rajouri. While addressing the workers' meeting, Sat Sharma highlighted the BJP's efforts to give honour to the chief architect of the Indian Constitution Dr. BR Ambedkar.

He said that Congress refrained from conferring the Bharat Ratna to B.R. Ambedkar for several decades while conferring the award to their own selves. The Union government backed by the BJP finally ensured the highest civilian award to the great visionary. Sat Sharma accused the Congress of being factually opposed to Dr. Ambedkar and his vision. He said that the Congress party ensured that Dr. Ambedkar was defeated in the Lok Sabha elections more than once to end his political career and weaken his ideology.

Sharma said that Congress refrained from the display of Baba Saheb's portrait in Parliament and refused the creation of a memorial for Ambedkar in his birthplace, Mhow. Now, the BJP created "Panchteerth" and created multiple memorials in Dr. Ambedkar's honour and propagated his ideology and life works in the society. He further said that the PM Modi-led government declared January 26 as Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas) to honour Dr Ambedkar. He added that the Congress played with the sentiments of the common masses for decades by misusing the government systems to propagate false information. Now, the people are well informed and they have rejected the divisive and deceiving politics of the Congress party. The party president said that the BJP has won the hearts of people with its good works under the leadership of PM Modi and the family of BJP is growing every single day. He congratulated the active members of the party and asked them to ensure the propagation of the party's ideology to the remote areas in the region. Sat Sharma also attacked the NC party for a U-turn on its poll promises and said that they had deceived the people of Jammu & Kashmir.

Vibodh Gupta spoke on the BJP's proactive approach to the socio-economic welfare of the people living in the remote areas of the region. He said that while the parties like Congress, NC, and PDP enjoyed the power corridors for decades together and amassed wealth for their future generations, they did nothing for the welfare of the people. Dinesh Sharma, Ch. Talib, Ch Zulfikar, Iqbal Malik, Manzoor Naik, Pushpinder, Jugal Sharma, Subhash, Rajesh, Sanjay Dutt, Kapil Saryal, Abdul Qayyum, Dev Raj Sharma, Bharat, Sanjay Sharma, Atam Parkash, Qaramat and others were among the senior leaders present in the meeting.

SMVDU showcases excellence at Jammu Mahotsav 2024

JAMMU, DEC 23:

Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University (SMVDU) proudly participated in the two-day Jammu Mahotsav, organized by the Ladakh Jammu Kashmir Economic Growth & Development Dialogue (LEAD) at GGS Science College, Jammu. The university effectively showcased its academic and extracurricular achievements at a specialised Stall, attracting a large number of visitors. Visitors were provided with detailed information about the university's various programs, including its undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral offerings, along with insights into the admission procedures. Faculty and scholars at the stall highlighted the university's achievements and its proactive efforts in fostering holistic development through academic excellence and societal outreach. The stall garnered significant attention for SMVDU's community development initiatives, such as Vikalp, a program where university students teach underprivileged children.

Additionally, the active contributions of the National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC) were showcased, highlighting their impact on both the university and the surrounding community. NSS at SMVDU actively engages in community service through initiatives like cleanliness drives, health camps, and skill development programs, while NCC fosters discipline, leadership, and patriotism through drills, camps, and awareness campaigns. The Technology Business Incubation Center (TBIC), the university's incubator for fostering innovation and entrepreneurship, was another major highlight of the stall.

SMVDU was represented by faculty members, namely Prof. Ashutosh Vashishtha, Dean, Faculty of Management, Dr. Varun Dutta (NCC Coordinator), Dr. Rajiv Kumar (NSS Coordinator), Dr. Pabitra Kumar Jena, Dr. Rajesh Kumar and Ms. Kirti, alongside dedicated PhD scholars Ms. Kalpana, Mr. Manish, Ms. Neha Gupta, and Mr. Vikas. Prof. Pragati Kumar, Vice Chancellor of SMVDU, commended the efforts of the university team and extended his best wishes to the organizers of LEAD and Jammu Mahotsav for their initiative in promoting regional growth and collaboration.

JU organizes workshop on basic life support and lifestyle awareness

JAMMU, DEC 23:

Recognizing the need to effectuate the right to health in its true sense, The Law School, University of Jammu organized a comprehensive workshop on Basic Life Support (BLS) and Lifestyle Awareness. The event was conducted in collaboration with Maximum Clinics, a unit of Maximum Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. The workshop featured an engaging session led by Dr. Manish Manocha, a renowned Consultant Orthopaedic, Trauma, and Joint Replacement Surgeon from the Ortho and Spine Centre. The session aimed to accomplish several critical objectives: to highlight the benefits of obtaining first aid and CPR, to familiarize participants with the proper procedures for managing various medical emergencies, to empower individuals to assist in administering first aid when a co-worker is injured, and to emphasize the importance of ensuring no harm is caused to the patient during emergency situations.

Dr. Manocha led practical demonstrations on crucial first aid techniques for medical emergencies, such as managing airway obstruction, ensuring proper breathing, and maintaining circulation. A key focus was placed on evaluating the scene of an emergency correctly—particularly in cases such as roadside trauma—to prevent further harm and avoid potentially fatal injuries. Participants learned how to administer CPR, assess responses, manage fractures, and apply pain relief techniques, along with methods for safely shifting patients, whether in cases of simple or compound fractures. The workshop also addressed more specialized topics, such as digital microvascular replantation for amputations, the basic management of heart attacks, brain haemorrhages, electrical shocks, heat exhaustion, and epileptic seizures. Participants were guided through preventive measures and basic life-saving techniques for these medical conditions. In addition to emergency care, the session emphasized the importance of lifestyle modifications in the prevention of common lifestyle diseases. Regular exercise and healthier living practices were strongly advocated as preventive measures.

Earlier, Dr. Seema Rohmetra, Director, The Law School, formally welcomed the distinguished speakers and demonstrators, underlining the necessity of such awareness sessions, which can significantly impact lives by imparting basic life-saving knowledge and skills. The workshop saw active participation from seventy students and was successfully coordinated by Dr. Monica Narang and Dr. Nitin Sharma, with invaluable assistance from students Palak and Janvi Sharma. The session's success can also be attributed to the contributions of Mrs. Kanchan Manocha, Mohd. Ali, Vishal Singh, Shilpa Jaswal, Govind, Dr. Shubha Vats, Dr. Monika Bhardwaj, Dr. Rajneesh Khajuria, Dr. Vandita Sharma, and Dr. Ramesh Kumar, whose efforts helped make the session interactive and immersive.

BJP committed to address public concerns, ensure holistic development: Randhawa

Launches protection work for Landoi Choi Nalah in Gandhi Nagar Extn

JAMMU, DEC 23:

Vikram Randhawa, senior BJP leader and MLA Bahu Constituency, today initiated the much-needed protection work for the Landoi Choi Nalah, which runs through the backside of houses No. 38A/B to 41B/B in Gandhi Nagar 2nd Extension. This significant development project, aimed at safeguarding the local area and improving the infrastructure, is being undertaken with an estimated cost of Rs. 26.52 lakh.

Addressing the gathering during the foundation stone ceremony, Vikram Randhawa expressed his commitment to ensuring the welfare of the residents of Bahu Constituency. He emphasized that the protection work was vital for preventing soil erosion, mitigating flood risks, and enhancing the overall safety of the area. "This project is a testament to the continuous efforts of the BJP-led government to address the concerns of the people and provide them with the infrastructure they need to lead a better and safer life. The development work will significantly improve the drainage and water flow management in the area, ensuring that the local residents are protected from any potential flooding or erosion hazards," he said.

He asserted that the project includes strengthening and reinforcing the embankments of the Landoi Choi Nalah to prevent damage to nearby residential properties, particularly during the monsoon season. The work is expected to be completed within the stipulated time frame and will provide much-needed relief to the residents who have been facing issues due to the unprotected Nalah.

Randhawa also assured that similar developmental works would continue to be prioritized across Bahu Constituency. He reiterated that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the government remains committed to creating a more resilient, developed, and secure environment for the people of Jammu and Kashmir.

Among those who were present included Rahul Kumar, Ex Councillor Ward 20, Sandeep Gupta District Secretary, Satbir Singh Ward President and others.
